

Dear Parents/Carers,

What an action-packed week it has been at Port Isaac CP School! The enthusiasm and energy of our students never cease to amaze us.

Firstly, we celebrated St. Piran's Day with a delightful pasty lunch. It was heartwarming to see our students enjoying this cultural tradition and embracing the spirit of Cornwall.

Thursday brought the much-anticipated World Book Day, and we were blown away by the creativity and effort put into the costumes. Thank you to all parents and carers for helping your children dress up in style. They truly looked fantastic!

In another exciting event, our Songfest choir represented the school admirably in Truro Cathedral. Their dedication and hard work paid off as they showcased their talents, having learned eight sea shanties this term with the AsOne Music Hub. We are incredibly proud of their achievements and the way they represented our school.

Additionally, we were fortunate to have the NHS Mental Health Team visit our school. They introduced themselves to the whole school and conducted a series of resilience workshops. Mental health and well-being are paramount, and we appreciate the valuable insights and support provided by the NHS team.

As always, we are immensely proud of our students and grateful for the continued support from our parents and carers. Thank you for being part of our vibrant school community.

Wishing you all a restful weekend,

Emma Williams
